

K-Love Radio has been a blessing in my life and I know others in my community. It touched so many lives with the wonderful music and commentaries aired on the station. It would be a total disappointment if K-Love has to come off the air to not just myself but for many others in my community.